Forever float that standard sheet
Where breathes the foe but falls before us!
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Arming the Slaves.

Those who are in favor of carrying on the war so as to save slavery, whether the Union is saved or not, are industriously fighting a man of straw that they have set up, called arming the slaves. No one is in favor of an indiscriminate and immediate arming of the negroes. That is a measure of necessity, which has not yet arrived. The man of straw is put up solely to screen inebecility. The tardy prosecution of the war cannot be defended, but prejudice and passion can be aroused, and when this is accomplished the enormous expenditures for war purposes and the little accomplished so far will for a time be forgotten.

Those in power need not arm the negro, but they must not let slavery stand in the way of a speedy suppression of the rebellion. If slaves come in tens, twenties or thousands to our camps, they must not be sent back to their rebel masters. To do this would "give aid and comfort to the enemy." The slave must not be turned out of camp, either, to fall into the hands of the enemy. He would be immediately put to the work of building forts and entrenchments, from behind which the rebels would shoot down our soldiers. The slave can be kept from helping the traitors without arming him with the musket, and this must be done. The spade, the shovel and the axe should be put into his hands, that he may aid in the great work of subduing the rebellion and restoring peace to the country.

During all the past summer our Wisconsin troops, who have labored at throwing up entrenchments and building forts near Washington. While they were at work, hundreds of negroes, who come from Virginia, were lounging about the camps doing nothing. Why did not the commanding general employ them, and thus relieve the toil of our soldiers? We are informed that these negroes were anxious to learn they would gainfully have given their best exertions for rations and clothes. They were accustomed to work, and the experience at Fortress Monroe proves that they are industrious and faithful—why were they then left to fall in to the hands of their rebel masters and not armed with the spade and axe? The answer is that the commanding general was afraid of having "our Virginia" become insubordinate by this implied emancipation of the slaves.

At Port Royal, thousands of negroes came forward and pressed their services upon Gen. Sherman. They did not want muskets, for they could not use them, but with willing hearts and sturdy arms they would have built entrenchments, forts and docks, and have asked nothing for pay but kind words and plenty to eat, but they were coldly turned away. While this was done our soldiers were overworked, so that sickness is the consequence. Immense quantities of stores had to be landed—not a negro was allowed to assist. Fifteen hundred of our troops have been working day and night, says the correspondent of the New York Tribune, much of the time in the water, and without any but the simplest help for lifting and transporting heavy weights. Pine logs, cut two or three miles away, are partly dragged and partly floated by the soldiers, with which to construct docks and storehouses. "The heavy labor imposed upon the volunteers by the refusal of the war department to furnish laborers, has interfered with the drill and the regular routine of the camp." Why send laborers from the north, when the rebellion country is full of them, ready to work? The answer is that Gen. Sherman is afraid of slavery—he does not desire to deprive the "hospitable people of South Carolina" of their servants—he sympathizes with the slaveholder, and will not, if he can avoid it, harm their institution of bondage. He would rather that sickness and death should spread in our ranks, and peril the cause of the Union at Port Royal, than employ slaves to do the necessary work of his camp. Why? Because it is the first step towards the destruction of slavery. He may, and probably does, desire to quell the rebellion, but like thousands of other pro-slavery men at Port Royal, he would just as soon see the Union destroyed as slavery abolished, even though it should be accomplished by the insurrection of the slaveholders.

We insist that the slaves of rebels shall be taken from their masters and kept from them, employed in the army, armed with the tools of labor to take some of the burdens of war from our volunteers, and finally set free. The necessity of arming them for war has not arisen, and need not now be discussed; but when an army, or a ship of war, or any number of loyal men, can be saved, by placing the sword and gun in the hands of black men, the commander who should refuse to accept their service would be guilty of criminal obstinacy and on it to be punished.

The Hudson City Bank has failed. The Star says the depositors are all secured.

Report of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Treasury's report, laid before congress today, after referring to recommendations contained in his daily report, gives the manner in which he obtained loans for various purposes of the government. The immediate expenditures were provided for by issuing $14,000,000 in 6 per cent two year treasury notes payable in sixty days.

His next care was to provide for disbursements for the war, and he adopted the plan to engage the banking institutions of the three commercial cities of the seaboard to advance the amount needed in loans for three years in 7-10 per cent bonds, to be reimbursed from the proceeds of similar bonds subscribed for by the people, hoping thus to combine the capital of the banks and the people with the credit of the government, so as to give efficiency to administrative action and competent support to public credit, and the result has fulfilled the hope. He then renews the agreement entered into between the banks and himself, by which the former agreed to take the loans. The history of the first two loans has been made public. The second loan was negotiated with the banks on the 16th of November, by which he agreed to issue to them fifty millions of dollars, in six per cent bonds, at par, for the bonds bearing 7 per cent interest. This agreement was completed with arrangements for reimbursement, and entailed no expense except the preparing and issuing the bonds. This was accomplished with the cooperation of the banks, and after the 1st of January a fourth advance of fifty millions of dollars should be made on the same terms as the first or second loan, if required.

In addition to these loans, $21,165,220 up to the 30th of November were issued in treasury notes of $5's, $10's and $20's payable on demand; and $3,385,165 remain in the treasury. This amount may be regarded as a loan from the people. The aggregate realized from loans in various forms, is $197,125,585.

The revenue receipts have not fulfilled his expectations. He says the act modifying the rates of duties differed from the measure he submitted to congress in most of its particulars, especially in diminished duties on coffee and sugar, and exempting goods in warehouse and on shipboard. The difference was disadvantageous to the revenue, while the potential cause of reduced receipts may be found in the changed circumstances of the country. These circumstances, coupled with the reduction of duties from 1852 from the revenue from $57,000,000 to $42,124,602. The estimate from receipts from lands and miscellaneous sources, also reduced from $3,000,000 to $2,304,082. The only other source of revenue is a direct tax authorized by congress, from which, if increased to the limit proposed by the secretary, and assumed by states, the further sum of $29,000,000 may be expected. The aggregate of revenue may be this estimate at $54,532,680, which is $25,157,315 less than the estimates of July.

The secretary states that the estimates for July were based on the raising of 250,000 volunteers and an increase of the regular army by 11 regiments, but after that report had been closed congress authorized the acceptance by the President of 500,000 men, besides additional companies and officers. This large increase has and must necessarily augment the expenditures far beyond the limit indicated by the original estimates, which will be still further extended by the increase of the navy, and additional appropriations are asked for. On these additional appropriations $1,983,500 were authorized by acts of last session, and $1,130,927 are now afloat. The aggregate of these is $3,114,427, which is $2,581,927 in excess of the estimates of July. To provide this large sum, retrenchment and reform are absolutely essential. Contracts should be subjected to strict supervision and contractors to a rigorous responsibility. An unnecessary office should be abolished, and salaries and pay materially reduced. While thus recommending retrenchment, he is himself constrained to new suggestions, heretofore submitted by him, that property of rebels should be made to pay, in part at least, the cost of rebellion. Property of great value in loyal states held by promoters of rebellion, or in a guilty attempt to break up the Union, which is justly forfeited to the people, and which should be sold to the government, or confiscated, and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction of claims arising from the war. Property of rebels in rebel states should be treated in the same manner. Rights to services under state laws must of necessity form an exception to any rule of confiscation. Persons held by rebels, under such laws, to service, as slaves, may, however, be justly liberated from their constraints, and made more valuable in various employments through voluntary and compensated service, than if confiscated as subjects of property.

The secretary says the most sacred duty of an American people now requires the concentration of their energies and resources to the establishment of the Union and sound policy would seem to suggest no extension of foreign trade, but more absolute reliance on American labor, American skill, and American soil. He recommends the duties on tea, coffee, and sugar be increased to 25 cents per pound on brown sugar, 3 cents on coffee; and that no other alterations of the tariff be made unless further experience shall demonstrate the necessity.

He deems it necessary to increase the direct tax so as to produce for a loyal state a revenue of at least $20,000,000; estimating such duties on stills, distilled liquors, tobacco, bank notes, carriages, licenses, on paper evidences of debt, and conveyances of property, and other like property as will produce an equal additional sum; the income tax will probably produce $10,000,000 more—making an aggregate of $50,000,000. The secretary is aware that the sum is large, but seeing no probability of the revenue exceeding $10,000,000 during the current year, he feels that he must not shrink from a plain statement of the actual necessities of the situation. Two-fifths of one per cent, on the real and personal property of loyal states will produce $10,000,000—the proposed income tax adding $10,000,000.

The secretary recommends also for a national circulation of notes, the features of which are a circulation of notes bearing common impression, and authorized by common authority; the redemption of these notes by associations and institutions to which they may be delivered for issue, and the security of that redemption by pledge of United States stocks and an adequate provision of specie. An important advantage to the people by this plan, would be in the increased security of the Union, springing from common interest in its preservation, created by the distribution of its stocks to assist them throughout the country as the basis of credit; and he entertains the opinion, if a credit circulation be desirable, it is most desirable in this form. He states that it is earnestly hoped, and not without sufficient ground, that the present war will be brought to a successful termination before midwinter, and that in that event the provision of revenue by taxation, recommended, will amply suffice for all financial exigencies, without additional loans, and enable the government at once to begin a reduction of the existing debt.

The war continues in July 1st, 1862, the public debt will be $17,322,804; if, till July 1st, 1863, it will be in round numbers, $90,000,000.

The prohibition of trade with the rebel states has been fully enforced. Regulations have been established by which rice, cotton, and other property in the insurrectionary districts occupied by our troops will be collected and sent by sea to New York. All sales will be for account of government, and the proceeds paid into the national treasury. As a general rule, commerce should follow the flag, and when the authority of the Union is fully restored in states, ports should be opened without restriction and all commerce freely permitted.

The secretary closes by saying it has been his endeavor to infuse into his department the greatest possible activity and vigor, and hopes that continued endeavor, with larger experience, will make it what it ought to be.

Last Night's Report.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Times.
St. Louis, Dec. 9.

Gen. Wm. T. Sherman, recently in command of the department of Kentucky, and ordered here from that command when succeeded by Gen. Buell, became insane soon after his arrival in St. Louis, from the effects of overwork and excitement. He has been taken by his friends to Ohio. It is believed that his insanity is only temporary, and that rest and quiet will restore him to health.

Citizens of St. Louis in Washington occupying positions there which enable them to ascertain the real feelings of leading and influential politicians, state that the abolition wing of the republican party can effect nothing towards establishing their emancipation policy as the policy of the government.

A duel was fought on Bloody Island, opposite this city, yesterday, between two citizens whose names have not yet transpired. One of the combatants had three fingers shot off.

Washington, Dec. 10.
Special to Post.—Mr. Etheridge, clerk of the house of representatives, received letters from Tennessee last night, saying that the rebel leaders had commenced the imprisonment of Union men into the rebel camps, and that hundreds of loyal citizens were being taken to Kentucky.

The house investigating committee will not be able to report until Thursday. Their report is likely to produce a revolution. The case of Senator Bright has been postponed for a few days.

Houston, Dec. 10.
There are 70 fugitive slaves at the Washington navy yard. They have all been comfortably provided for by Secretary Welles, and most of them are working for a compensation of $10 a month.

Marshall Lamon reports to the senate that the imprisonment of slaves in the government jail in this city, was in strict accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia.

Senator Mr. Chandler announced the death of Saml. or Bingham of Michigan. After a tribute to the memory of the deceased, his colleague, Mr. Chandler, offered the customary resolutions that the senate go into mourning 30 days and to adjourn. Messrs. Clark and Sumner spoke in support of the resolutions. The resolution was agreed to and the senate adjourned.

There is—Mr. Pendleton moved that the memorial of H. Ward, Goddard and Davis, be referred back to the committee on judiciary with instructions, declaring that congress has the power under the constitution to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. The bill was then referred to the committee on judiciary, and the department of the government on suspension, and dangerous to public liberty; that the persons above named be delivered to the marshal, to the end that they may be arrested with the rights of a speedy trial, if there be probable cause for such proceedings.

He spoke at some length on this subject, saying that the group were members of the board of police of Baltimore, and on the first of July last, in the dead hour of night, were arrested by order of the military authorities, and without charges being preferred against them, conveyed as prisoners to Fort Mifflin. They ask that congress may examine into the question, or that they may be heard before a judicial tribunal, and yet his. Mr. Pendleton's colleague on the committee on the judiciary could find no more fitting response to the memorial than that it should be unrecorded on the table. The question here presented was as to the legality of their present punishment, which he denied.

Mr. Bingham said his colleague's position was that congress alone can suspend the writ, while conceding that the time had arrived for its suspension. When rebellion lifted up its head over a large portion of the republic, and essayed to strike down the pillars of the constitution, it was no crime to suspend the writ, it was no crime to shed blood in its defense, it was no crime to suspend the writ, it was no crime to shed blood in its defense, it was no crime to suspend the writ, it was no crime to shed blood in its defense.

On motion of Mr. Bingham, the whole subject was tabled—adjourned 36.

A message was received from the senate, announcing the death of Senator Bingham, of Michigan. Eulogies were delivered by Messrs. Beaman, Townbridge and Grainger of Michigan; Mr. Ashley of Ohio; Mr. S. Lewis of New York.

The usual resolutions of respect were passed, after which the house adjourned.

To-Day's Report.

(Report Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

The government has decided positively on the policy of filling up the numbers of the regiments in the field to 1,016, if it shall be necessary to do this to break up the imperfect re-organized organizations now in progress, and the rank and file and leaving the officers. It will be done. The government has no action of putting into the field in army of officers, or of putting them into the ranks.

A. A. Johnson, brother of Ex-Gov. Johnson, of Pennsylvania, had his pocket picked this morning at the railroad depot, of two government drafts, one for $5,000 and one for $1,800, a check on the Bank of Pittsburgh for $350, and $400 in cash.

World's dispatch.—The question of the exchange of prisoners seems to be fairly settled. The New York executive committee had several long and interesting interviews with the President, Gen. McClellan, and senators and members of the house, all of whom favor it. The committee's interview with Gen. McClellan was especially gratifying. He spoke of the subject briefly but warmly, and from his conversation, but evidently given the subject much study. The military committee in both houses have reported favorably on the subject, and a joint resolution, which passed the house requesting the making of an exchange, will pass the senate to-morrow. An exchange has been practically going on—30 prisoners were sent from here yesterday to Fortress Monroe, and large numbers have been released from Fort Warren.

Times Dispatch.—Our government has replied to the invitation of England, France and Spain to take part in the expedition against Mexico, declining to have anything to do with it.

A letter from a citizen in the western part of North Carolina, to a friend in Washington, has passed the rebel lines and was tonight put into the hands of Gen. McClellan. It brings the clearest confirmation yet received that there is a large and determined organization of Union men in that state. They are putting themselves in communication with the Union men of East Tennessee, and await only the dawn of hope for general uprising. They expect Brownlow to be reinforced by the government, and will accept that movement as the signal for their own action.

It is currently stated that the military committee of the house favors the treatment of the prisoners captured by our vessels as prisoners of war.

A dispatch was received at headquarters late last evening stating that two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, the rebels, had made their appearance in front of Gen. Bleckers division. It was reported, also, that a pretty large rebel force had taken possession of Springfield, a place abandoned by them some time ago. The rebels have been advancing quietly into the rear of our line for several days, in several directions, with a view of overhauling our position.

All the small sloops and schooners that were below the blockade have succeeded in running up safely.

The rear of artillery has been heard all day today, near Paul's church, probably practicing at Centerville. Near Alexandria there could be heard, all the afternoon, heavy and steady firing, down the Potomac, supposed to be near Freestone Point.

The regular troops surrendered to the rebels in New Mexico by Major Lynde, and released on parole, consisting of one company of the 3d cavalry, and five companies of the 1st infantry, are to be stationed on the northern frontier, and will probably garrison the posts of Detroit, Fort Niagara, Fort Ontario and Roscoe's Point.

Col. C. A. Waite, of the 1st infantry is assigned to the command of a district embracing the above named posts.

A copy of the New Orleans Delta of November 21st, which reached here today, announced that Wm. L. Yancey and Gen. C. C. Clay were elected senators from Alabama to Jeff. Davis' senate, on the 21st.

The Houston Telegraph of the 10th, announced that Wigfall had been elected senator from Texas, and that Odham, Wall and Hemphill were candidates to fill the other vacancies. A letter from Austin, Nov. 11th, states Gen. Hubert is making formidable preparations for defending the Texas coast. Jas. L. Baley, a member of one of the Red River regiments in the rebel army, had been hung as a spy.

The Delta announces the messenger of the Southwest Express company would leave New Orleans on the 21st of November, and that the proprietor has advantages which must make the south index of the mail blockade.

London, Dec. 10th.
The report that Capt. Nevitt, with 40 men of Col. Burnhams' regiment, burned a bridge at Whipperville, five miles from Russellville, on the Memphis Branch railroad, is confirmed. They attacked the rebel guard number 13, killing two and taking the remainder prisoners.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, Dec. 11.

The steam transport City of New York, from Port Royal 6th, has arrived. General Stevens with 1,000 men, had occupied Bearfort. The gunboat Patuxent, several transport ships, and a number of troops left Union Head on the 4th for Tybee. Gen. Sherman had appointed superintendents for the picking and securing of cotton at Union Head and adjacent islands. Health of troops good. No fighting had occurred. Gen. H. H. Holmes' expedition would probably sail about the 12th.

New York, Dec. 11.
The steamship Columbia, from Havana, 9th, has arrived. The rebel steamer Van Hook, 333 tons, arrived at Havana on the 31, five days from New Orleans.

Boston, Dec. 11.
Ex-Minister Fulkner, released from Ft. Warren on parole, has gone to Richmond to endeavor to exchange himself for Mr. Ely.

Washington, Dec. 11.
Seymour.—Mr. Sumner presented a petition for the emancipation of slaves—those of rebels without compensation, and those of Union men to be paid for.

Mr. Wilson offered a resolution that the committee on military affairs be instructed to enquire and state to the senate, what redemptions may be made in the expenses of army. Agreed to.

Holmes.—On motion of Mr. Holman it was resolved that the committee on public lands should report what railway companies had received donations of lands on conditions of transporting troops and munitions, and whether the government has the unqualified right of such transportation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

Chris. Anderson and family arrived on the steamer Columbia. He is a brother of Robert Anderson, and escaped from the hands of the rebels at San Antonio, and walked to Monterey, Mexico. He was treated with great kindness by the Mexicans. He sailed on the British steamer Clyde to Havana. He reports that though British subjects whom he met were violent, indifferent at the seizure of Mason and Sillib on the Trent, he and family were treated with kindness. Anderson's family was sent originally by the rebels to the Mexican frontier, while he was held a prisoner of war. The Clyde met the Spanish fleet and army within 36 hours sail of Vera Cruz, with fine weather. The Mexicans were daily expecting the allied fleet. The general feeling appeared to be favorable to Spain.

All funds were giving way to a sentiment of united resistance to the enemy, and the frequent remark was, if the Spaniards came alone they will be heartily welcomed. No resistance however was to be made at Vera Cruz or Tampico. The guns of the arsenal San Juan de Ulloa were being carried inland. If Mexican symptoms can be trusted, a determined resistance will be made to any Spanish invasion.

ALBANY, Dec. 11.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the New York Central Railroad was held here today, and the following directors were chosen by a unanimous vote: Deasies Corning of Albany, Deasies Richmond of Buffalo, John H. Chubb of Auburn, Almon C. Page of Schenectady, Jno. N. S. Pruyn of Albany, Jacob Gould of Rochester, Cornelius S. Terry of Troy, A. H. Russell and Richard M. Blatchford of New York, Ham-

WHITING OF SYRACUSE, and Henry A. Martin of Albany.

The annual report of the directors shows the earnings of the road in the month of November to have been $951,120, being an increase of $220,288 over the same month last year, and larger earnings of the company in one month. The surplus of income account on 30th September, 1861, was $246,685.25, invested in improvements and supplies.

The annual report of the committee of stockholders appointed to examine into the accounts of transactions of the company, says the books and accounts of the company are in good order, the system well devised, and they show that the statements in the report of the company are correct.

On the question of the re-appointment of stockholders, examining committee coming up in the meeting, it was resolved, after full debate, not to again appoint such a committee, the special circumstances that gave origin to it having passed away.

The Markets.

New York, Dec. 11.
Floor receipts 25,878 barrels, market 5c; butter, sales 18,000 barrels, 5,104.55 super state; 5,655.75 extra state; 5,400.50 up western; 5,655.50 common to medium extra western. Wheat receipts 111,530 bushels, market 1c better, limited supply; sales 65,000 bushels, 1,221.23 Chicago spring; 1,231.31 Milwaukee club; 1,32a 1,33 number Iowa.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A desperate fight took place in Wirt county, Virginia, we learn from a correspondent of the "Evening Intelligence," between a detachment of the 11th Virginia regiment and a superior force of Mosasin Rangers, a rebel organization. The latter were beaten, with a loss of eight or ten men. Among the killed is Pat Connelly, who boasted of having thirty-one Union scalp in his possession.

Col. Mallin has not a very high opinion of House Guards. He thinks them "inartistic in peace and terrible in war."

The Baltimore Clipper learns by the boat from Old Point that a serious outbreak is feared in Richmond among several of the Irish regiments, the soldiers having declared that if Col. Corcoran is executed they will revolt and wreak vengeance upon his executioners. There are three Irish regiments in Richmond and two other regiments who have declared to revenge Col. Corcoran, if he should be put to death.

The report of Commissioner Edwards, of the general land office, exhibits the astonishing fact that notwithstanding the political difficulties of the country, actual settlement on the public lands have increased, and that during the year forty thousand new farms, of eighty acres each, have been added to the wealth of the republic.

The Washington Republican notes it as a sign of progress, that a letter from Lexington, Ky., says Judge Holt is putting forth of protecting the property of pro-slavery traitors and rebels, and says that the war must take its course even if it be across the "peculiar institution."

DEATH.—It is now denied that a dispatch was found at Port Royal from Jeff Davis, announcing the destination of the fleet, and it is concluded that the stories of the betrayal of the destination of the fleet were all false. We nevertheless remember reading among the papers found among the rebel property at Port Royal an order from Gen. Johnston to the commander of one of the forts, dated November 23, directing that officer what preparations to make for a defence against an attack. The expedition sailed from Forts in Monroe on the 29th of October, and the attack was made the 7th of November, five days later than the date of the order.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY FOR THE 13th.

We now have nearly 300 volumes for our Regimental Library. Some of them are hardly worth taking, while the most are very good. Quite a number of friends have kindly promised us further aid, but have not yet delivered bringing them in. Will all who intend making us donations do so without further delay. With 300 volumes we would have only one book for every two men. And the unavoidable losses will gradually diminish them. Throwing all our friends who have favored us, we hope to receive further supplies immediately.

A New Arrangement.

On the 1st of next January a change will be made in the proprietorship of the Gazette Office by the withdrawal of Mr. Bowen. This change will render absolutely necessary a settlement of the subscriptions and other accounts due the present firm. We hope our friends will give this matter their immediate attention, and leave as few debts as possible for settlement after the change is made. It will be easier and better to all concerned to settle before that time, as a settlement must be made.

TREASURER'S RECEIPTS.

We have printed a very superior article of TREASURER'S RECEIPTS, with stubs, which we will sell for 75 cents a hundred. The utility of this kind of receipts will be seen by examining them.

FOR HOLIDAY GOODS, call on WEBB & LEE.

CHURCHES IN CHICAGO.—Sixty-three Evangelical churches are reported in Chicago, attended by one in ten of the population. This was ascertained by a simultaneous count on a pleasant summer day. There are, in connection with these churches, 75 Sabbath schools, 1,692 teachers, 10,080 scholars, and 13,761 volumes in their libraries. Bishop Duggan (Roman Catholic) says there are there 30,000 Catholics; and that, between the Sabbath morning and night, as many as 6,000 attend St. Mary's church.

PAY UP.—In another part of our paper will be seen a notice to all that are indebted to Fife & Bro. to call and settle before the 1st of January next, and save costs.

AFTER HER.—The secretary of the navy has dispatched one of the fastest and most powerful vessels in the navy and a swift gun boat to intercept the rebel steamer Nashville on her return. The instructions of the officers are to approach the British coast as near as the neutrality laws will permit, and to cruise off the coast until they capture her. The Nashville is likely armed, and if the United States steamer falls in with her she will certainly be taken. A writ of attorney on the part of the loyal owners of the Nashville has also gone out in one of the new steamers, to be executed in Southern ports.

IF YOU WANT A SPECTACULAR ASSORTMENT OF SILVER GOODS CALL ON WEBB & LEE.

CARTON.—In calling for that excellent salutaris (Dr. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Salutaris) be sure that you get what you call for, as there are, owing to its great success, numerous imitations in the market, put up in the same colored papers. Be sure and get that with the name of Dr. B. De Land & Co. upon it, and then you will be sure you are right.

To Our Debtors.

It will be seen by a notice in another column, that on the first of January next there will be a change in the proprietorship of the Gazette. The NECESSITY of a settlement of ALL our accounts will be apparent to all who will give the subject their attention, and as our own convenience will be materially promoted by a settlement before the dissolution of the partnership, and the interest of no debtor will be injured by doing in season what must come at last, we hope there will be no request or attempt at delay. Mr. Wilcox will devote his time to this matter, and as there are a large number of persons to settle with, let each one be prepared when called on. No one will be turned out of the office if he calls here for that purpose.
